PREFACE

This new edition of "Children's Praise," entitled "Children's Praise No. 2," is issued in answer to a widespread demand. It is designed for the Beginners, the Primary, and the Junior grades in Sabbath Schools and for Junior and Intermediate Societies. Among its seventy-six sections there are many distinctly adapted to little children, while there is also ample provision for those who are older. Care has been taken to keep the music within the proper voice range and simple enough for easy mastery. Mrs. Charles F. Miller, of Pittsburgh, was charged with much of the musical task, and her assignments have been fulfilled most efficiently. As to word material, considerable versification of the Psalms and other Scripture has been found necessary. Authority for this action was given by the General Assembly. The metrifying work was placed in the competent hands of the Rev. Charles E. Craven, D. D., and with most satisfactory results.

The book, with its content of praise and prayer, is now sent forth by the Music Committee on its mission among the childhood of the Church. May it prove itself a large blessing.

Children's Praise

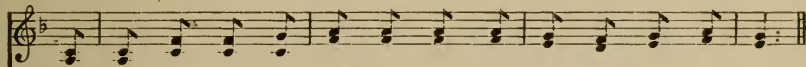

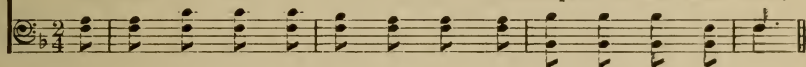

1 How Blest And Happy

PSALM 1

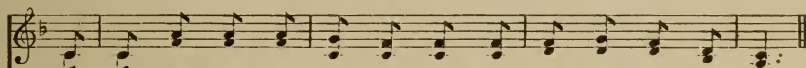

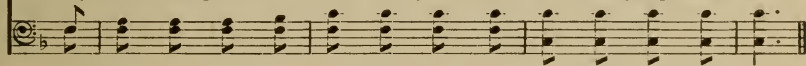

George E. Henderson

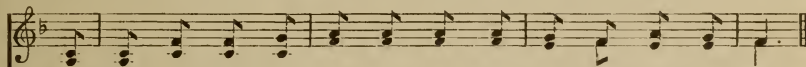

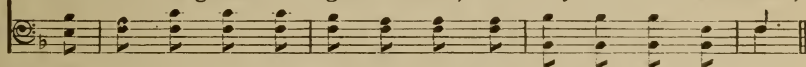

1 That man is blest who, fear-ing God, From sin re - strains his feet,
2 The wick-ed like the driv-en chaff Are swept from off the land;

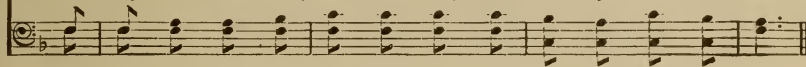

Who will not stand with wick-ed men, Who shuns the scorn-ers' seat.
They shall not gath-er with the just, Nor in the judg-ment stand.

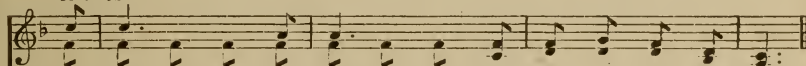

That man is nour-ished like a tree Set by the riv-er's side;
The Lord will guard the right-eous well, Their way to Him is known;

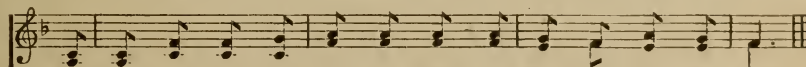

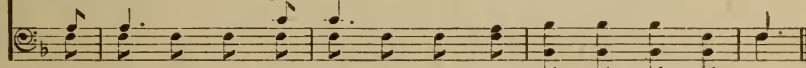

Its leaf is green, its fruit is sure, And thus his works a - bide.
The way of sin - ners, far from God, Shall sure - ly be o'erthrown.

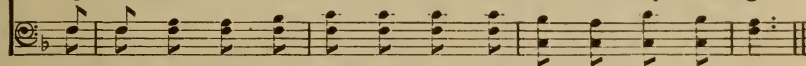

CHORUS

How blest the man Who pla - ces his de - light
How blest and hap - py is the man

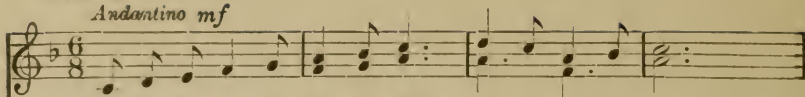

Up - on God's law and med - i - tates On His law day and night.

PSALM 1

Andantino mf

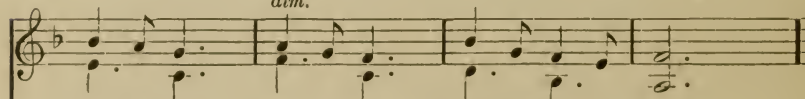

1 Hap- py and glad are boys and girls, God's own children they,
 2 They shall grow up like no - ble trees near where riv-ers run,

Whether they walk or stand or sit, in the days of youth
 Ev - er their spreading boughs are green,nev-er fear-ing blight;
 Sure-ly the wick-ed can - not stand in God's judgment day;

dim.

They de-sire and ad-mire friends who love the truth.
 Thus al-way, blest are they, liv - ing in God's sight.
 On - ly they who o - bey shall be blest for aye.

PSALM 32

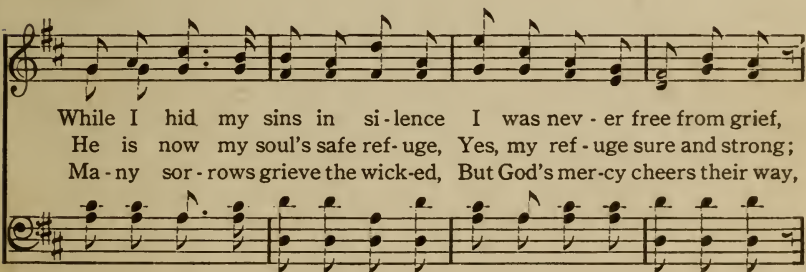

S. B. Saxton

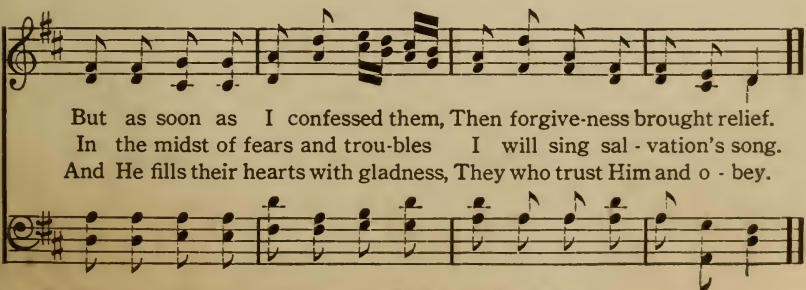

1 It is good to be for-giv-en, Our sins all cov-ered o'er;
 2 Yes, the Lord our God is gracious And near to all who pray,
 3 Turn to God, and nev-er, nev-er, Re-sist His love and grace;

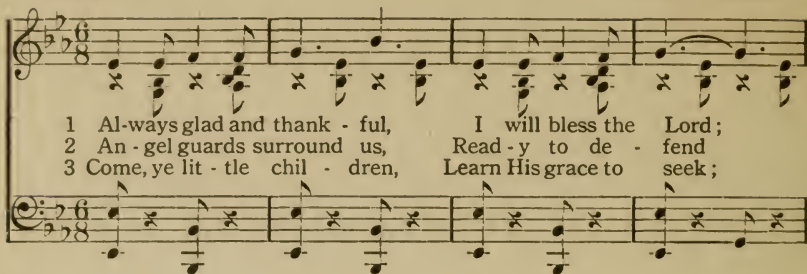

When the Lord condemns no lon-ger And conscience stings no more.
 Sorrow's waves shall not o'erflow those Who make the Lord their stay.
 He will coun-sel you and show you The sun-shine of His face.

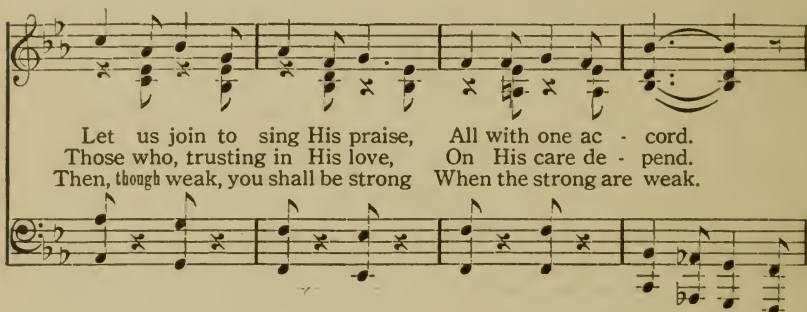

While I hid my sins in si-lence I was nev-er free from grief,
 He is now my soul's safe ref-uge, Yes, my ref-uge sure and strong;
 Ma-n-y sor-rows grieve the wick-ed, But God's mer-cy cheers their way,

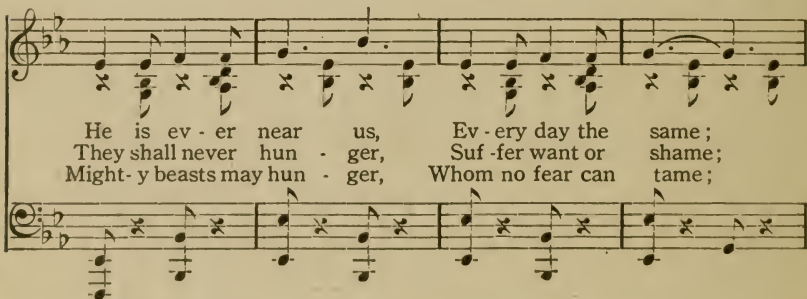

But as soon as I confessed them, Then forgive-ness brought relief.
 In the midst of fears and trou-bles I will sing sal-va-tion's song.
 And He fills their hearts with gladness, They who trust Him and o-bey.

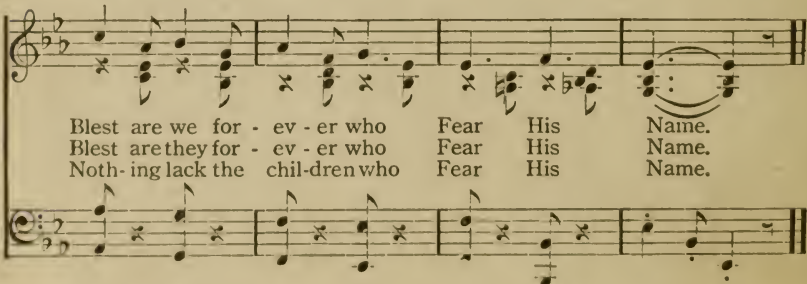

1 Al-ways glad and thank - ful, I will bless the Lord;
 2 An - gel guards surround us, Read - y to de - fend;
 3 Come, ye lit - tle chil - dren, Learn His grace to seek;

Let us join to sing His praise, All with one ac - cord.
 Those who, trusting in His love, On His care de - pend.
 Then, though weak, you shall be strong When the strong are weak.

He is ev - er near us, Ev - ery day the same;
 They shall never hun - ger, Suf - fer want or shame;

EPHESIANS 6

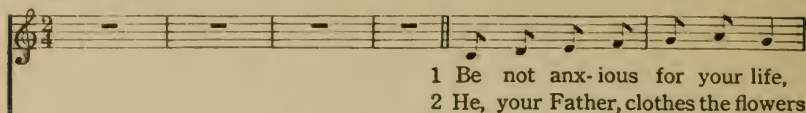

1 Be strong in the Lord almighty, Put on all God's armor bright ;
 2 Stand then, with the truth your girdle, Righteousness your breastplate strong,
 3 Take the helmet of sal - va - tion, Take God's Word, the Spirit's sword ;

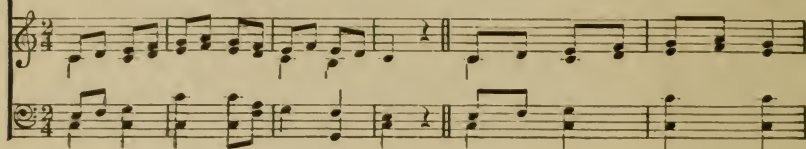

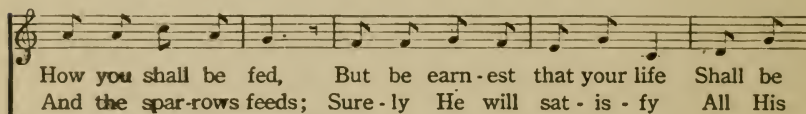

Not with flesh and blood we wrestle But with powers of darkness fight.
 On your feet the gos-pel sandals, Faith your shield against the wrong.
 Watch and pray, O Christian soldier, In the armor of the Lord.

The Lord, my Good Shepherd, Keeps me in His care, Where wa-ters flow from the path roam, The Good Shepherd follows And leads them back home.

No dark-ness can harm me With Him for my guide, No fears can a-bless all my way; For-ev-er and ev-er With Him I will stay.
